

LEFT PLACE FOR LARGE MEETING

Gettysburg Has Chances to Secure Selection as Permanent Site for Large Religious Gathering. Lost out This Year.

Gettysburg has a chance to secure the permanent site for the eastern division of the Church of the United Brethren, according to local members of the church who are interested in the question of that body. It will be recalled that Gettysburg put up a strong fight for the meeting of last year and that York finally won out. Now they are looking for a permanent place in the East. Later Western is the site is the Middle West with no town has been selected for the Far West.

Elders Abraham, Oakland, Md.; John H. Bowers, Gettysburg, Pa.; Thomas, Harrisburg, Pa.; Taylor, Lancaster, Berks, Pa.; Hamilton, Pottsville, Pa.; and others, comprising the committee of the Church of the United Brethren in the East, are now holding the annual meeting when it occurs at the site of the year. It is held in the city of the year.

Members of the committee went to York, Pa. They returned to Gettysburg at 10 o'clock on Monday morning for the purpose of selecting a site for the next year's meeting. They were met by the city of the year.

There are eight places which the committee has in view, including York, Pa.; Harrisburg, Pa.; Lancaster, Pa.; Pottsville, Pa.; and others. The committee will make its selection for the next year's meeting. It is expected that the committee will select a site for the next year's meeting.

BIG BARN FIRE

Joseph Adams suffers $4,000 loss.

Adams' barn, situated on the west side of the town, was destroyed by fire.

Fire on Monday destroyed the barn on the farm of Joseph Adams, situated on the west side of the town. The barn and all its contents were lost. The fire was discovered at about 10 o'clock Tuesday night and Adams rushed to the barn. He succeeded in saving the hay and the stock. The fire started in a fodder stack, but the flames spread rapidly and completely destroyed the barn.

WOULD PUNISH THE OFFENDERS

Town Council Takes Steps to Punish Gettysburg Citizens who Put Wooden Shingles Roofs on their Homes.

Borough Attorney White was instructed at a meeting of the town council on Tuesday evening to take steps looking toward the protection of persons who have wilfully violated the ordinance relative to the placing of wooden roofs on houses and the erection of wooden buildings in town.

It was reported that there had been several roofs of material furnished in this ordinance, put on both old and new houses in the town, some of them by persons who had been willing to "take a chance" on it. The ordinance provided a fine of not less than $10 or more than $50 for each violation. It will require the support of the commission and it is believed to be accepted by the council.

The design they approved is for a rectangular marble structure in the town, which will be used by the town council to enforce the ordinance. The structure will stand a heretofore. The structure will be used by the town council to enforce the ordinance.

One of the walls of the Lincoln Way was knocked at Washington on Wednesday morning, after fifteen consecutive meetings the Lincoln memorial commission decided to approve the design for a monument to the president submitted by Henry Brown, a New York architect. President Taft, chairman of the commission, presided, and Speaker Clark, representative Canon, Senator Clegg, Wetmore and Martin, were present.

The president will also to congress a special message transmitting the design for a monument to the president submitted by Henry Brown, a New York architect. President Taft, chairman of the commission, presided, and Speaker Clark, representative Canon, Senator Clegg, Wetmore and Martin, were present.

SHOT DEAD
Hunter Shot Does Not Hearster, Dies.

Dead Saturday night nearly all the campers have returned home. A great number of hawks were killed and from different locations comes the report that some do have been killed.

At Henry City, near Hunter's home, some party or parties killed a deer. The deer had been in the woods for the last several years and the animal would be seen by the members of Bassett's and Gardner's camps and then it was considered a pet, and so they returned she seemed the wisest of the forest. The deer was shot in the neck and the animal would be seen by the members of Bassett's and Gardner's camps and then it was considered a pet, and so they returned she seemed the wisest of the forest.

WAS RETURNED
Officer Wilson Captured Man Who Escaped from Mount Hope.

County Detective Chas. H. Wilson on Monday turned over to the authorities Lawrence Elio who escaped from Mount Hope Penitentiary some Baltimore about a week ago. Mr. Wilson apprehended him near Parkfield. The man's home is in Oakland, Maryland.

FINE CUPS FOR POULTRY SHOW

Miss Eva Charlot and Harry Jefferson Leave Town suddenly and are Married in Washington. Other Weddings.

HOFFMAN—EHRHART
A wedding occurred Saturday at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ehrhart's home on Friday at noon of their daughter, Miss Eva Charlot, and Harry Jefferson. The couple left town Thursday morning for Washington, where they took a train for Washington. Their departure was a matter of great surprise to their friends, but the fact that they were to be married had been kept in a profound secret by their nearest friends and there was no indication at all that there was anything of the sort planned until their sudden departure became known.

Family evening another message was received from Rome, Virginia, and it is thought that they may make their wedding there through the next day. Mr. Hoffman has been employed for some time at the garage of the Gettysburg Motor Car Company and resigned his position with the evident intention of accepting employment in Rome, Virginia.

MILLER—STONESTRIVER
Mrs. Anna E. Stonestrive, of Littlestown, announced the marriage of her daughter, Mary Helen, to Mr. J. E. Stonestrive, of Littlestown. The wedding was performed in Littlestown, November 28th. The bride was accompanied by her father, Mr. J. E. Stonestrive, and the groom by Mr. J. E. Stonestrive.

SANDERS—KANE
Curtis J. Kane, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kane, of York, and Miss Mary Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kane, of York, were married on Monday at 10 o'clock, when Mr. Kane was united with Miss Kane at St. Francis Xavier church by Rev. Fr. J. J. Sullivan.

MUSSELMAN—SHEFFER
A wedding occurred Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Musseلمان, of Harrisburg, when their daughter, Mrs. Musseلمان, was married to Mr. Sheffer, of Harrisburg. The wedding was performed at 10 o'clock, when Mr. Sheffer was united with Mrs. Musseلمان at St. Francis Xavier church by Rev. Fr. J. J. Sullivan.

USE TO THE TRAVELER

Little Works That May Be Seen in the Air Mail or Expressable.

Men who travel much frequently find themselves without the possibility of help when a little disease besets them as the owner of a hotel, and as often as not the necessary articles necessary to remedy the defect are absent. Under these circumstances a small case fitted to fit the traveler is most desirable.

If You Value Your Eyesight

You will apply your reading table with a Rayo Lamp

Authorities agree that a good balance of lamp is the best for reading. The Rayo is the best of lamp made, the result of years of scientific study. It gives a steady white light, clear, mellow, without any flicker or glare. Can be lighted without removing chimney or shade. Easy to clean and renew.
